The Editors Weekend

The first of six weekly suggestions which may help you to enjoy the weekend.
To help you orient yourself in the city - A GRAY LINES BUS TOUR.

These tours leave for the terminal at Bay and Dundas.

Tour 2A seems to offer the most for the least - 4 hours long, leaves at 1:30 p.m. daily - costs $4.50.

After the tour walk down Bay Street to the TORONTO DOMINION CENTRE

The express elevator will take you to the 54th floor where there is a good view and a comfortable cocktail lounge.

Saturday is the last opportunity you will have of seeing HARRY BELAFONTE at the O'Keefe Centre. There is a matinee at 2:00 and an evening show at 8:30. Tickets range $3.00 to $6.50 and should be ordered as soon as possible.

On Sunday you might visit the ONTARIO ART GALLERY (Dundas Street West of McCaul) Open from 1:30 - 5:30 - entrance fee 25¢.

This weekend the exhibit is entitled "Six Centuries of Treasures". Tours leave at regular intervals. You may buy afternoon tea at the Grange in the Gallery.

For Sunday evening - try the MAISON SUISSE RESTAURANT - 513 Bloor Street, West (South side of Bloor just East of Bathurst). Inexpensive with European atmosphere, a reasonable menu and a beer and wine licence.

After dinner wander down to the CHURCH THEATER - 4 Glenmorris (north of Harbord between Huron & Spadina) where the "The Caucasian Chalk Circle" is being produced. 8:30 and admission free.
